CIPFA members

CIPFA is the professional body for people in public service finance – the only accountancy body in the world exclusively dedicated to the sector.

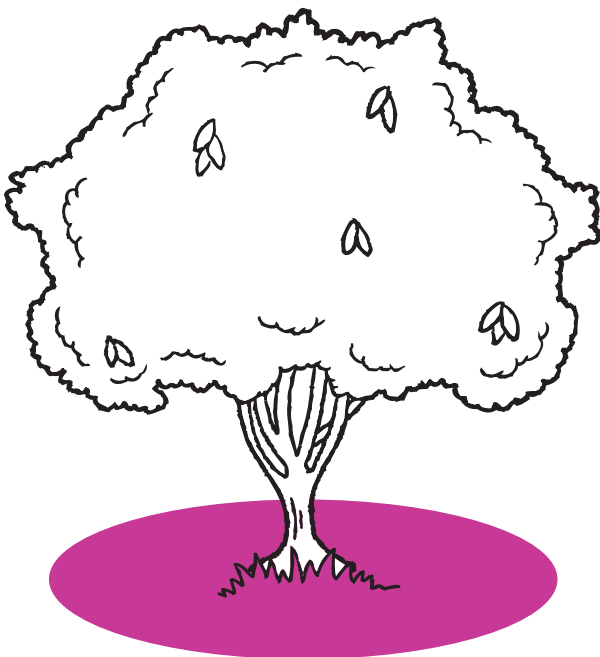

We champion the performance of public services globally and help to develop and promote careers in public sector financial management.

Our internationally recognised qualifications, training and learning solutions are widely considered as standard-setting and industry-defining.

From the moment you start the CIPFA Professional Accountancy Qualification you become a member of CIPFA. Our members lead the way in public financial management and are at the heart of everything we do.

As a CIPFA student, you'll have our full support throughout your studies and your career. Through exclusive events, accredited courses, e-learning and much more, we'll give you the guidance, skills and knowledge that you need to support your continued professional development.

In Ireland, CIPFA is a prescribed accountancy body with the Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority (IAASA) and our members work at Senior Director level roles in central government, health and local government.

the CIPFA professional accountancy qualification

If you want to become an expert in public service finance, the best place to start is by studying the CIPFA PQ (Professional Accountancy Qualification), the only specialist qualification for the sector.

Entry requirements

CIPFA does not require you to have a degree in accountancy to study our qualification.

You can study the CIPFA PQ if you have an Irish leaving Certificate in at least five separate subjects (including Mathematics & English) with at least 3 subjects at Higher Level (Grade C3 or above) and at least 2 subjects at grade D3 or above, either at Higher or Ordinary Level. Mathematics and English can be at Ordinary or Higher level (Grade D3 or higher).

If you do not meet the academic requirements, you can become a CIPFA student if you are 21 or over and have over three years' relevant experience and the support of your employer.

We also offer specific entry routes for AAT, IIA CIMA, ACCA, and Chartered Accountants Ireland (CAI) qualified individuals.

Fast Track for Experienced Accountants and Institute of Internal Auditors working in the Public Sector

CIPFA membership gives you access to the global CIPFA network of public finance experts and adds real direction to your career. By adding a CIPFA designation to your existing qualification you immediately improve your career prospects and professional standing within public finance.
